- Merchandise must be current styles/trends. No more than a few years old with the exception of vintage and retro items.
- Our customers are looking for designer/ high-end merchandise. We do not accept department store and big box brands. This means sometimes we may not accept nice items. Please do not be offended, we just know our market.
- We set the selling price of each item based on market research and years of experience. If you have the original price please share it. Any paperwork with authenticity on products is a great selling point!
- Consignment period is for up to 90 days. At 30 days items are reduced at FF staff's discretion. At 60 days items are reviewed, if any are deemed non-sellable they will be donated with no further notice. Remaining items will be reduced further. After 90 days remaining items become property of Fabulous Finds to dispose of as chosen. The exception to this is high-end items such as handbags shoes and fine jewelry. The consignor must keep up with the contract end date and call to request pick-up on these items.
